1. Write sentences asking for suggestions using shall.

- Shall we have a hamburger?
- Let’s go to the cinema this evening.
- Why don’t we go to the cinema?
- What shall we do tonight?

2. Read the questions in exercise 1 and make as many suggestions as possible.

Example: Let’s watch TV. / What about hiring a video?

- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
- ________________________________
Making Suggestions

1. Write sentences asking for suggestions using shall.

What / do / tonight?
_____________________________

Where / go / tomorrow?
_____________________________

What / give / mum / birthday?
_____________________________

Who / invite / party?
_____________________________

2. Read the questions in exercise 1 and make as many suggestions as possible.

Example: Let’s watch TV. / What about hiring a video?
_____________________________

_____________________________

_____________________________

_____________________________

_____________________________

_____________________________